

You are invited to

AN AFTERNOON WITH FRIENDS

St. Luke's church hall
2:00 pm to 3:30 pm

A series of presentations to inspire your curiosity and your imagination!

February 11    “Smoky Bear and me: We want to talk to YOU about wildfires, forest harvesting and Nova Scotia’s forest losses.” Donna Crossland, Forestry professional, author

March 11        “The Cronin Papers; an intimate look at Lower Granville in the 1700 and 1800s”
Ian Lawrence, Annapolis Heritage Society

April 8:    “Fort Anne at 100 Years: An iconic place in the Historic Landscape of Canada.” Brenda Dunn, retired Parks Canada Historian and author

Public presentations hosted by the Annapolis Royal Friends of the Library

